Decree No 558, issued in Bucharest on 25 February 1953 by the Council of Ministers, sets forth the following regulation pertaining to the payment of all young workers employed in Rumania's workshops.

In order to stimulate young brigadiers [young workers] who are employed in workshops to greater production, and in order to induce them to surpass their norms before the allotted time, the following regulation is hereby set up:

Article 1 -- All young brigadiers who have surpassed their monthly production quotas, and who have produced at the same time work of acceptable quality, will be compensated by payments in accordance with the present regulation.

Article 2 -- Payment will be made on a monthly basis, in accordance with the labor output of each young brigadier.

Article 3 -- The amount due each young brigadier will be calculated as follows:

From the average salary paid for the work of a young brigadier -- this salary being in accordance with the wage scales for that particular type of industry -- all the expenses for his maintenance during the course of one month will be automatically deducted. These expenses will include the cost of the worker's food, lodging, and clothing. The amount of the expenses is predetermined before commencement of labor.

Article 4 -- From the amount of money which the young brigadier is due to receive -- this amount being calculated in accordance with Article 3 above -- only 25 percent will be paid to him at the end of the month, whereas the remaining 75 percent will be deposited to his account with the CEC (Casa de Economii si Consemnatiuni, Office for Savings and Consignments).
